MOVING TO VALUE-BASED CARE
FOR BETTER HEALTH AND BETTER BUSINESS

- Health care costs are high – value is low
- $266 billion is wasted on uncoordinated care
- $205 billion is wasted on inefficient, low-value and unnecessary medical costs
- $6 trillion is spent on health care
- $205 billion is wasted on uncoordinated care
- $266 billion is wasted on inefficient, low-value and unnecessary medical costs

VALUE-BASED CARE
MOVING TO
$6.0 trillion by 2027
- Projected to reach nearly
- National health spending is $6 trillion

VALUE-BASED RELATIONSHIP
FOR PROVIDERS
- Note savings in excess of 7.5%
- Almost a quarter of survey respondents
- 5.6% average medical cost savings
- Decreased 1% increase in satisfaction

GOOD FOR PATIENTS
- Improved outcomes for patients
- Improved 37.5% lower readmissions
- Improved 14.6% lower total medical costs
- Improved 11.7% lower admitted
- Improved 25.1% reduction in medical costs

GOOD FOR PROVIDERS
- Improved provider satisfaction
- Improved 37.6% decrease in patient wait times
- Improved 51.9% decrease in ER visits
- Improved payments
- Improved 30,000+ attributed savings
- Improved in Medicare savings
- Improved in shared savings

WE MEET YOU WHERE YOU ARE AND GET YOU WHERE YOU WANT TO BE

RESULTS
- $2.5M in shared savings
- $7.1M in Medicare savings
- $2.5M in payments
- $7.1M in reconciliation
- 92.9% overall quality score
- 29,000+ beneficiaries
- 37.6% decrease in patient satisfaction
- 25.1% reduction in medical costs
- 14.6% lower total medical costs
- 11.7% lower admissions
- 37.5% lower readmissions

* Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services

CareAllies.com

Pre- and post-enrollment comparison for 246 patients enrolled in Chronic Care Management program with start of care dates from 1/1/2018–12/31/2018. Comparisons with market are established using Cigna internal claims data. Individual client results will vary.